Parish Messages

Dear Friends of John Carroll,

It has been almost six years since I began serving John Carroll Catholic High School as Principal and President. I am overwhelmed by everything that has been accomplished through God's providence in the generosity of our community. Nearly four years ago we embarked on the "silent phase" of a Capital Campaign to raise funds for basic improvements. Advancements in technology and learning require us to keep up-to-date. (Our new campus is now 22 years old!)

In that phase, I visited many donors and asked for sacrificial gifts. I am truly grateful for all the help we received. We were able to raise 2.2 million dollars towards our 4 million-dollar goal. Of course, with 10,000 living alumni and countless other friends and supporters, time did not permit me to visit everyone I would have liked. Now that we are moving into a "public phase" of the campaign, I am therefore asking for your help in completing the task.

We still have much to do to keep John Carroll a competitive and cutting-edge school. Should you like to meet with me to discuss a gift or legacy, please do not hesitate to call the school at (205) 940-2400. All of us at John Carroll thank you in advance for helping our students achieve their goals.

Keeping You in Prayer,

Fr. John McDonald
