THE LEPROSY LEFT HIM
AND HE WAS MADE
CLEAN

Pastor's Message

The harshness of the human condition that Job referred to in last Sunday's Old Testament Reading is brought home to us this Sunday in the plight of the leper.

The prescription of the Book of Leviticus was tough. "As long as the sore is on the leper he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp."

It is known that the person with leprosy in the ancient world was socially and ritually ostracized. Some primeval fear of contagion was at work. The leper had to live apart, cut off from social contact. There was also the matter of being cutoff from community worship. Was there a fear that in touching a leper the person might be soiled by blood from the sore? This would cause ritual impurity to the person making contact with the leper.

A further reason to avoid the leper was the common assumption that the leper was a sinner who was being punished for personal sin.

Here we see prejudice and fear at work. People afraid of the unknown. In a pre-scientific society, cultural taboos and fears led people to do irrational things. Even in our scientific age, think of the fear and suspicion about people who contracted AIDS. Children were expelled from school; adults were quarantined in hospital settings. Gradually we came to understand this new disease and became less fearful of contagion.

The leper who presents himself to Jesus in the Gospel of this Sunday (Mark 1:40-45) was obviously ostracized socially and ritually. He had known isolation and excommunication from family and community. It was a demeaning existence. Jesus changed the boundaries of both human suffering and divine compassion.

God's compassion is larger than social norms and ritual limitations. In an astonishing moment Jesus "stretched out his hand and touched the leper". God drew near to us in Jesus, so near as to touch us. No healing here by long-distance or some impersonal gesture like an email. In the Sacraments of the Church Jesus continues to draw near and touch us and in the touch there is healing.

Mark notes with interest that the leprosy which had been with the man for many years, disappeared immediately. The leper who was ostracized and shunned now begins to preach to them. How amazing are God's ways?

We are all wounded healers who have been forgiven and restored by God's grace. That is why we are able to touch and heal others.

The Season of Lent: Begins this week on Ash Wednesday. This is the annual forty-day retreat for the Church. It began as a much shorter time for the Catechumens to prepare for the Sacraments of Easter. Today it is a graced time for all the baptized to enter a spiritual journey. As a Parish we will participate in a Parish Mission with Fr. John Paul of the Missionaries of the Eternal Word. We also share the traditional devotion of the Stations of the Cross every Friday evening (after a fish-fry dinner). Individually we will need to fashion a Lent that will help us grow spiritually and cause us to be "missionary disciples". Scripture reading, daily Mass, fasting from food, almsgiving and kindness to others are all encouraged in this Lenten Journey.

Thought for Today: "I shall await him who saves me from the raging wind and tempest." (Psalm 55)

Peace and Blessings, Fr. Sexton

Office of the Bishop

February 6, 2015

Dear Pastors and Friends of the Black and Indian Mission Collection:

By virtue of our baptism into Christ Jesus, we are all missionaries, beginning with our own families and parishes. Like the Apostles, we are encouraged to reach out to our brothers and sisters in faith, love, and sacrifice. We must continue to build God's Kingdom in our world.

We invite you to help build our Mission to the Missions by supporting the Black and Indian Mission Collection the weekend of February 21-22, 2015.

Your support provides the presence of missionaries here in African American, Native American, and Alaska Native missions, schools, and religious education programs. Your partnership places Bibles and catechetical materials in the hands of priests, consecrated women and men, and lay leaders in Black Catholic communities in the Diocese of Jackson, Mississippi; in Native American pueblos in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, New Mexico; to the far reaching villages of Alaska; and so many other places. Your sacrifice addresses the need to train catechists, permanent deacons, and seminarians for future generations here in many of our neighborhoods and backyards.

Pope Francis reminds us in Lumen Fidei (51), "Faith helps us build our societies in such a way that they can journey towards a future of hope." Your prayer needs to be constant as together we join our hearts and hands, always serving the Christian communities in love and in imitation of Christ, the first missionary sent from the Creator above.

In solidarity with our Holy Father and with each and every person, "The hands of faith are raised up to heaven, even as they go about building in charity a city based on relationships in which the love of God is laid as a foundation." (Lumen Fidei, 51).

Thank you for your prayerful support of the Black and Indian Mission Collection. For promotional materials online, visit www.blackandindianmission.org/resources.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert J. Baker, S.T.D.
 Bishop of Birmingham in Alabama

Announcements

Lenten Regulations Ash Wednesday is Feb. 18th.

The Catholic Church, in an attempt to help Catholics do at least a minimum during Lent, asks all Catholics to fast and abstain from meat on certain days. Fasting means to limit food to one full meal a day with the possibility of two smaller meals (not adding up to a full meal) as needed. Abstinence means not eating meat, although fish is allowed. Catholics are asked to observe all days of fasting and abstinence which is one of the precepts of the Church.

Catholics 14 years of age or older are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.

Catholics between the ages of 14 and 59 are also to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If one's work or health make it inadvisable to fast or abstain from meat, they are not obligated to do so.

2015 Men's Conference Strong Men Strong Faith!

Monday, February 16, 2015 at 7:00 pm

St. Peter the Apostle Catholic Church

I can't praise our 8th & 9th Grade Classes enough. I wish you all could have seen these teens in action as we visited Rosewood Manor Nursing Home. They mingled, presented Surprise Valentine Gift Bags to all. They even got residents to come out of their room as they sang, danced and prayed, with the them. It truly was the fruits of the Spirit that touched the hearts of all. A wonderful way for this Confirmation class to use the Gifts they received from the Holy Spirit. The same gifts that will be sealed within them in the Sacrament of Confirmation. SOMETHING DIFFERENT IS ABOUT TO TAKE PLACE!

Beginning with the first Sunday of Lent, Feb

22nd and at the 8:30am Mass only, we will be asking our children from Kindergarten thru Grade 3 to join us at a Children's Liturgy of the Word. We will call children forward to the altar after the Gloria and take them to the Library; there we share with them the Scripture Readings for Sunday on their level. We will have a lesson on the Gospel and an activity that relates the Scripture readings to their little lives. Children will be returned to their parents before we pray the Creed. In living out Pope Francis' evangelization, we hope that our youth will begin to get a better understanding of the Scriptures. Your child is not forced to join us, but for a Pilot Program, we encourage all children from K to Gr3 to join us! If you have younger children they are welcome in our Nursery. We encourage parents to work together with their older children on why it's so important to be at Mass and in the presence of Christ. We ask for prayers for this program; if it goes well we will continue throughout the year. If you are interested in helping out please contact Parma 405 0948. Peace and Prayers ☺

What Else can I Give Up for Lent?

Chocolate? - Ice Cream? - Soda? Many of us try to be more disciplined for Lent and give up something that we really like. That's great! Fasting has always been an important tradition of Lent. This year however, let us also consider other things that we can give up.

- Give up complaining—Focus on gratitude
  - Give up bitterness—Turn to forgiveness
  - Give up worry—Trust in God
  - Give up discouragement—Be full of hope
  - Give up hatred—Return good for evil
  - Give up anger—Be more patient
  - Give up gossiping—Control your tongue
- Here's to a HAPPY HOLY LENTEN SEASON!
