Today's Readings

First Reading — I shall gather the remnant of my flock and bring them back to their meadow. (Jeremiah 23:1-6)

Psalm — The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Psalm 23)

Second Reading — In Christ Jesus you who were once far off have become near by the blood of Christ. (Ephesians 2:13-18)

Gospel — When Jesus saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he began to teach them many things. (Mark 6:30-34)

REST IN THE LORD

For several weeks we have listened to readings that have recounted just how arduous the work of prophets and disciples can be. In today's Gospel, the Lord Jesus listens to the reports of those he had sent out "two by two" to minister to the people. After the apostles reported what they had done, Jesus, recognizing their fatigue, says, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile" (Mark 6:31). Perhaps this is what the Lord is telling his disciples in the year 2018 as well. We need to pause on our journey of discipleship and simply rest in the Lord. Sunday Mass provides many opportunities for quiet times, particularly during the periods of silence following the readings. Why not take the time today to allow the saving word of the Lord to penetrate your heart during those silent times? Ask the Lord to renew you in body, mind, and spirit for the arduous work of discipleship.
